

[from Spring '09]

New Ways to Watch Waterfowl

Step outside to listen and you may hear the calls of thousands of waterfowl. To find the source of all this chatter try exploring the ponds, lakes and rivers in your neighborhood or take a day trip to Chincoteague National Wildlife Refuge. Once you begin to discover more about these beautiful birds, they can be an artistic inspiration. Enter your waterfowl masterpiece for a chance to have it featured on the next Junior Duck Stamp! Find out how at <http://www.fws.gov/juniorduck/>.

Photo by Nick Greif